

OUR NURSE PRACTITIONERS

NURSE PRACTITIONER AMY AITTAMA, FNP

Amy joined CFM in 2015, but moved to Ithaca with her wife in 2006 in order to enjoy the Finger Lakes region, to be closer to family, and to start their own family. Amy was born and raised in Michigan and earned a BS in Psychology with a minor in Outdoor Recreation from Northern Michigan University. She joined AmeriCorps immediately after graduating. She completed two years of service in rural Michigan through AmeriCorps, facilitating education, empowerment and community service projects. Upon relocating to San Luis Obispo, CA she worked for several non-profit public health agencies, helping to boost awareness and prevention of HIV, teen pregnancy, sexual assault, and domestic violence.

Amy completed her BA in Nursing in an accelerated 1-year program at Binghamton University. She worked full-time at Cayuga Medical Center while pursuing her Master's Degree from Upstate Medical University.

NURSE PRACTITIONER JENNY ROSS, FNP

Jenny Ross joined Cayuga Family Medicine in September of 2017. She is a nurse practitioner with a specialty in family medicine and urgent care. She received her Masters of Nursing at Frontier Nursing University and attended Decker School of Nursing at Binghamton University for her undergraduate degree. Before becoming a nurse practitioner she worked as an RN in specialties of medical/surgical nursing, trauma center nursing, emergency department nursing and hospice. Jenny has been a long time resident in the Ithaca area with her family. Jenny loves the area and enjoys being apart of the Ithaca community and culture.
